

1966 2016

deep roots • strong future

Clara Martin Center

50 years of People Helping People

www.claramartin.org

24-Hour Emergency Services
800-639-6360

Deep Roots ♦ Strong Future

Walk along our path of growth...

October 27, 1966
Orange County Mental Health Services is established as part of the State's Designated Agency System, with an office in Randolph. Comprehensive services for children, adults and families with developmental disabilities, mental health and substance abuse needs

October 31, 1963
President John F. Kennedy signs the Community Mental Health Act into law

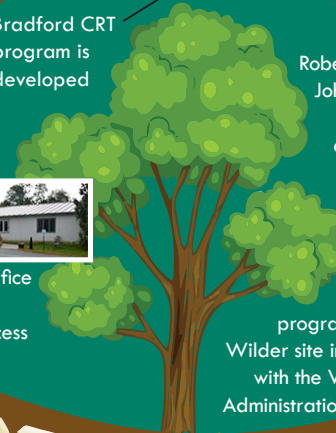

Arnold Spahn joins Board of Trustees

Bradford office opens to improve access

Bradford CRT program is developed

Robert Wood Johnson grant awarded to develop services for severely emotionally disturbed children

Quitting Time program opens at new Wilder site in partnership with the Veteran's Administration

Established contracts with the Department of Corrections for persons involved with the criminal justice system

Clara Martin Center moves into offices at 11 North Main Street. After three fires destroyed downtown Randolph, CMC moved their offices from South Main Street to the center of town to support the rebuilding of the "Winslow Block Building"

January 1994
Linda Chambers is named Executive Director

Challenger, an alternative tutorial program opened at 24 South Main Street

CARF Accreditation granted to CMC

January 30, 1994
Orange County Mental Health Services changes name to Clara Martin Center

November 2, 1990
Clara Martin passes away. Brewster joins Board of Trustees

Safe Haven established as collaboration between CMC, VPS and NAMI

Regional Alternative School (RAP) is launched in collaboration with the Hartford Area Regional Collaborative

Central Vermont Substance Abuse Services (CVSAS) established in Berlin as a partnership between CMC, HowardCenter, and WCMHS

School services greatly expand. CMC purchases former East Randolph Elementary School, which receives designation as a private school, called East Valley Academy today

Upper Valley Services, a separate non-profit agency is established to focus on clients with developmental disabilities

Tropical Storm Irene hits Vermont. Emergency staff provided immediate support to devastated towns.

TAY (Transition Age Youth) program expands to Bradford and Wilder

Central Vermont Addiction Medicine (CVAM) launches a collaboration between CVSAS and BAART as part of the State's Hub and Spoke initiative

March 12, 2012
Netsmart's "MyAvatar" electronic health record goes live

April 2012
Chris's Place founded to assist State efforts to reduce hospitalization

April 2012
First Youth Summit

2002
Dr. Kevin Buchanan joins CMC as Medical Director

September 2002
CMC brings local services to Chelsea in partnership with the Chelsea Health Board

Robert Wood Johnson Depression grant received in partnership with Gifford Medical Center for the Chelsea region

CMC adopts a philosophy of Resiliency and Recovery

Outdoor Adventure Programming developed

Wellness Program is developed for adult services

August 4, 2007
Dr. Brewster Martin passes away, an annual award in his honor is established for agency staff

CMC receives the Business Excellence in Community Service award by the White River Valley Chamber of Commerce

December 2012
Farmhouse and new TAY building open in Bradford

CMC brings services to the campus of Vermont Law School

CMC receives the Business Excellence in Community Service award by the White River Valley Chamber of Commerce

CMC builds strong relationship with Little Rivers Health Care in Bradford through Open Any Door Grant

January 2013
Ayers Brook site opens in Randolph for the Child & Family program

January 2015
CMC embraces national standards for a Behavioral Health Center of Excellence with a focus on access to services

July 2015
All CMC campuses go tobacco free

Collaborative Solutions opens second site - Second Spring North in Westford

November 2006
Dual Diagnosis training is implemented agency wide for all staff

April 2006
Fogg Farm Road site opens in Wilder

Transition Age Youth (TAY) program launches in Randolph

The Challenger Program is renamed East Valley Academy

Collaborative Solutions Corp. established as a partnership between CMC, WCMHS and HowardCenter, opening Second Spring in Williamstown

